

ALTERMODERNS

"The garage bizarre. A fierce burst of rock'n'roll"
(Lenny Helsin / Shindig! Magazine)

"Altermoderns, cool as fuck. Art'n'politics & rock'n'roll"
(Ged Babey / Louder Than War)

"A psychedelic rock bouncer with powerful energy"
(Llewelyn Screen [A&R Factory])

Originally from Brazil, Altermoderns are a Bristol-based duo Glauco Caruso (guitar/vocals) and Ananda Kuhn (drums/vocals) who write songs that weave the personal with the geo-political in what they call 'docu-fictional narratives'

They are not shy about wearing their love of The Sonics, Love and Bo Diddley as a badge of honour. With the recent release of their debut album 'Side Effects of Reality' on Groovie Records (Portugal), a string of well received singles and scores of gigs played before enthusiastic audiences, Altermoderns show no signs of slowing down in 2023.

Positive reviews about the band's first singles and debut album have met with radio play including RadioLux (album of the year), Dandelion Radio (Festive 50) WFMU (New York, USA) KDCR
(California, USA), Raving Pop Blast!, RockRadioUK, DinAmicoFM
(Brazil) Evolrock Radio (Bogata, Colombia).
